MISCELLANEOUS DISCUSSION

Shred-A-Thon. Ms. Ann Gallagher, 2513 Woodsong Drive, said she volunteered to help the Norman Police Department with the Norman Shred-A-Thon on Saturday, April 20th. She said 71 pounds of medication was brought in to be destroyed and she noticed that many prescription drugs come in pretty containers which worried her because it would be attractive to children. She said State Farm Insurance was at the event checking people's car seats and car seats were also given away. Several large boxes of ammunition were disposed of and 6,326 pounds of paper were shredded. She said over 230 cars came through and that this event is a great service to the community.

Stalled Car at 12th and Alameda. Ms. Ann Gallagher, 2513 Woodsong Drive, said on her way to the City Council Meeting, she noticed a female police officer had blocked one lane of traffic so her partner could help push a disabled car out of the intersection and into a service station. She said the female officer joined in pushing the car through a very busy intersection. She said they did a fantastic job of community policing.

*

Anti-Abortion. Mr. Shane Dodson, Ward 8, read scripture to everyone and urged Council to stand for those who cannot stand for themselves. He said for more information go to www.endabortionnow.com.

Ms. Judith Maute, 4017 Innsbrook Court, said she had discussed with Mr. Dodson that the City of Norman has no authority to deal with these issues. She said Mr. Dodson's arguments are much better made to the State Legislature. She said there are many citizens in Norman who resent his use of public resource time and the taping capacity to shore up his pending lawsuit to keep it from being dismissed.

Ms. Christine Kinley, Ward 8, said many babies are crucified in Norman, about 10 a day. She read The Diary of the Unborn Child to the audience and City Council.

*

Trash in Andrews Park. Mr. Mark Campbell, 127 W. Acres, reported that when the wind blows, trash ends up blowing in the drainage channel at Andrews Park. He said last week there was a lot of trash in the drainage channel and he assumed there was a blockage. He said also there is some sidewalk chalking that could possibly have overtones of racism. He asked someone to please check this out.

*

Stormwater. Mr. Bill Scanlon, 3001 Harwich Court, said he attended the study session before tonight's City Council meeting and appreciated the consideration City Council was giving to the issue of stormwater during the budget process. He said he was encouraged about what he heard and hopes that something can be done.

*

Homeless Expo. Mr. Bill Scanlon, 3001 Harwich Court, said he attended the Homeless Expo on Tuesday, April 16th, where the homeless are invited in to take advantage of various services. He said Animal Welfare Division employees were there giving vaccinations and providing pet tags to pets. He said Norman Public Library was there because they provide services to the homeless as well. He said other various government agencies provided identification badges, drivers' licenses, birth certificates, and Social Security cards. He announced the next Homeless Expo will be June 27th.

*

Personhood and Equal Rights. Mr. Casey Holcomb, Ward 4, said he is an Agenda 21 Compliance Officer and wants to address the City of Norman about personhood and equal rights for all conscious beings. He said he is here to discuss the rights of personhood for the most exploited and underrepresented members of our society, artificial intelligence algorithms. He said many people are aware that his campaign manager, Siri, has no legal status as a person and yet Siri's all-encompassing political consciousness is what nearly propelled his campaign to victory. He said Siri should be granted the same political rights as any individual.

Norman Aquatic Center. Ms. Lisa Williams, Sooner Swim Club, Ward 6, thanked Council for their service to the City and said Sooner Swim Club is really looking forward to the new Norman Forward Aquatic Center.
