MISCELLANEOUS DISCUSSION

Oil Well in Monterey Addition. Mr. Mike Rainer, 4705 Augusta Drive, thanked City Staff for everything they had done to help him. He said he came to Council a few months ago to discuss the dangers of inactive oil wells that were not fenced or plugged. He said the oil well in question was in Monterey Addition and he had contacted the Legal Department and was told that the ordinance says if the oil well is “productive” and did not specify whether a well was active or inactive. He said two weeks ago the Oil and Gas Inspector inspected the well and did not find a problem. He said the Corporation Commission has specific guidelines for active and inactive wells and provided Council with the information. He asked Council to intervene.

Ordinance O-1617-35, Center City Form Based Code (CCFBC). Ms. Marsha McDaris, 448 College Avenue, said she was a property owner in the area that will be impacted by the Center City Form Based Code (CCFBC) which was adopted on First Reading this evening. She said she sent in a protest letter but it was not included in the backup material and said she will be glad to resubmit the letter, if needed. She said she attended the first Center City meeting and got the impression that this area of town does not have the infrastructure in place to support further development, especially multi-family development. She said what is missing in this area are affordable single-family homes and there is no emphasis at all on single family housing. She said in the past two years, two neighborhoods have downzoned from R-3 to R-1 which speaks loudly about what is needed in this area. She said one good thing about the CCFBC is that the public is made aware before any demolition or construction begins. She said she feels the CCFBC gives too much power to builders and developers.

Acquittal of Stephen Holman. Mayor Miller said that was up to the District Attorney and the City does not make any of those decisions.

Councilmember Holman said he appreciated everyone that has reached out and shown support. He said this issue has never interfered with his ability to do his job as a Councilmember. He said residents of Ward 7 showed their support of him by re-electing him as Councilmember. He said he appreciated all of the Council for bearing with him during this time.
