

GENERAL ELECTION REPORT
NORMAN ELECTION COMMISSION
May 12, 2015

The Norman Election Commission (NEC) met January 5, 2015, to prepare for the 2015 Norman Municipal Election. During this meeting, Ty Hardiman was re-elected Chair and Dr. Richard Hilbert was re-elected Vice-Chair. The commission reviewed and updated the packets for council candidates and selected January 21, 2015, for a public meeting to present election information to candidates.

Seated Councilmembers for Wards 1, 3, and 7 did not draw an opponent. Ward Five Councilmember Lynne Miller drew one opponent and that election was held April 7, 2015.

The NEC discussed the new state law regarding municipal elections and also reviewed the City ordinances in Chapter 7.5 which were revised to comply with state law.

On January 21, 2015, the NEC held a public meeting for candidates and interested parties. The meeting was conducted by Chairman Hardiman, City Clerk Brenda Hall, and Code Compliance Officer Kelvin Winters. The meeting was attended by several Council Members and candidates.

The NEC met February 2, 2015, to review candidate reports. The candidate reports were accepted by the commission with minor errors and corrections noted.

The NEC met March 31, 2015, to review candidate reports. The candidate reports were accepted by the commission with minor errors and corrections noted.

Bobby Stevens, Candidate for Ward Five, addressed the commission regarding the wording and placement of campaign signs, specifically those of his opponent. Chairman Hardiman and City Clerk Hall responded to Candidate Stevens' questions and concerns.

The NEC met on May 4, 2015, to review post-election reports as well as quarterly reports from seated Council members. These reports were accepted by the commission with minor errors and corrections noted.
