You should know that where coverage is provided for losses resulting from certified acts of terrorism, such losses may be partially reimbursed by the United States government under a formula established by federal law. Under this formula, the United States government generally pays 80% of covered terrorism losses exceeding a statutorily established deductible paid by the insurer referenced above. The Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended, contains a USD 100 billion cap that limits the U.S. government reimbursement as well as insurers' liability for losses resulting from certified acts of terrorism when the amount of such losses in any one program year exceeds USD 100 billion. If the aggregate insured losses for all insurers exceed USD 100 billion, your coverage may be reduced.

The premium charged for this coverage is provided below and does not include any charges for the portion of loss covered by the federal government under the act.
