MISCELLANEOUS DISCUSSION

Thanks to Police Department. Mr. Roger Gallagher, 1522 East Boyd Street, said members of the Police Department are under a lot of pressure while on duty because many times they are walking into an unknown combat situation. He said it was important for people to recognize this and thank them for the job they are doing. He encouraged everyone to go through the Citizens Police Academy because after attending, a person develops a new understanding of how the Police Department operates.

Councilmember Quinn said he read a newspaper story about a Norman police officer who saw someone who was in need of a Christmas tree and helped them purchase it. He said he has been associated with the Norman Police Department for many years and they are always very positive, willing to help, and supportive about what is going on in Norman. He urged citizens to please support our local police.

Councilmember Holman said he appreciated all of the men and women who were members of the Norman Police Department and also all City workers who would be working during the holiday season.

*

Thanks to Jack and Lisa Hooper. Councilmember Heiple commended Jack and Lisa Hooper, the Good Life Restaurant Group, for helping Food and Shelter, Inc., serve over 354 people today. He encouraged everyone to show their appreciation by paying a visit to the restaurants they own, Blu, Blackbird Gastropub, the Library Bar, and Jax. He thanked Mayor Rosenthal and Councilmember Lang for being there.

*

Merry Christmas. Councilmembers Heiple, Holman, and Lang wished everyone a Merry Christmas.

Mayor Rosenthal added her Best Wishes to those who had just celebrated Hanukkah or were preparing for Christmas or Kwanza. She said it is an important time of year with family and friends and remembering those who are important to us. She also wished for safe travel to those who would be on the road.

*

Shop Norman. Councilmember Williams said it is possible to buy every Christmas present in Norman. He said Norman has so much to offer and invited everyone to “Shop Norman” for all their additional Christmas gifts.

Councilmember Quinn said he appreciated Council supporting “Shop Norman.”

Councilmember Holman said that if the gift could be purchased in Norman, please buy it in Norman.

*

Christmas Day Dinner. Councilmember Holman reminded everyone about the Norman Christmas Day Dinner at Norman High School. He encouraged anyone who needed a place to go to please attend or to volunteer to help out.

Water Rate Election. Councilmember Holman said after the holidays he will be knocking on doors in his ward to ask for support for the water rate increase election on Tuesday, January 13, 2015, and will also be glad to answer any questions his constituents might have.

Mayor Rosenthal said there would be three public meetings to provide information about why the water rate increase is needed, the importance of better water quality, and the improvements that are needed. She said the meetings would be Tuesday, January 6th in City Council Chambers at 7:00 p.m.; Wednesday, January 7th at Truman Elementary School, 600 Parkside Road, at 7:00 p.m.; and Thursday, January 8th at Fire Station No. Nine, 3001 Alameda Street at 7:00 p.m. She said Norman has not had a water rate increase since 2006 and the improvements will provide significant investments to water quality.

*

Be Careful During the Holidays. Councilmember Lang said he had seen two accidents within the last 24 hours and urged everyone to slow down and drive defensively.
