MISCELLANEOUS DISCUSSION

Grant for City Wide Wi-Fi. Ms. Ann Gallagher, 1522 East Boyd Street, asked why the City of Norman does not have City-Wide Wi-Fi although she knew it was expensive. She said she had heard there were grants available for this and encouraged staff to look into it. She said the City of Ponca City has this service that was provided via a grant.

*

Water Issues. Ms. Ann Gallagher, 1522 East Boyd Street, said approval of plats is a concern to many citizens during this severe drought. She said maybe Council should consider postponing approval of these types of items until the City is in a better situation.

*

Election Today. Councilmember Williams thanked everyone who voted today, the turnout was not as good as he would have liked.

Commending the Police Department. Councilmember Williams said the Police Department had been very busy on Monday, February 11th in Norman. He said there had been a traffic accident with a fatality, fugitives that were captured, and a bank robbery. He said he had the opportunity to hear most of what transpired and was thrilled at how well the situations were handled in a such timely fashion. He said he received several telephone calls about the traffic that had been diverted off of Interstate 35 during the traffic accident which had really affected Ward 8, but assured them the City responded to the situation in a timely fashion. He thanked the Police Chief and all other departments for their efforts. He said to see them work so well with other agencies was impressive.

Councilmember Lockett said she was going to a meeting during all of the activity and had been stopped by the roadblock. She said she was impressed with their professionalism of our Police Department. She said Governor Fallin released the Top 20 Sharpshooters Report for the State of Oklahoma and eight were from Norman and she congratulated them.

Councilmember Castleberry said he was at Whittier Middle School yesterday trying to get inside when the schools were locked down. He said he could not get in and was not allowed to leave the parking lot. He said he was very impressed with the coordination between the Police Department and other law enforcement agencies. He had asked the Police Chief if the Police Department had all the resources needed to handle the situation and was assured that they did. He is proud this city is invested in the Fire and Police Departments and that Norman is a very safe place to live. He thanked the Police Chief for a job well done.

Councilmember Kovach joined his colleagues in expressing his appreciation of the Police Department. He said he was on Interstate 35 for an hour and half while it was shut down. He said the number of officers involved in diverting people off of the interstate and getting everyone through to the right intersection required a lot of coordination.

*

Road Construction in Norman. Councilmember Griffith said the road construction at 12th Avenue N.E. and Robinson Street and Porter Avenue north of Rock Creek Road was creating quite of lot of frustration. He said there had been problems with the subgrade at the Robinson Street and 12th Avenue N.E. intersection which caused delays. He urged citizens to be patient because City Staff is working diligently with the contractors to expedite the completion.

Councilmember Gallagher echoed Councilmember Griffith's comments with the construction. He said Dallas does not do road construction in the daytime, but at night, and thought the City of Norman had never done that. He asked if this had been considered.

Mayor Rosenthal said Secretary Ridley always encourages her to pick up the phone and call him when there are complaints about the progress of a construction project. She said the City should make him aware of these concerns. She felt there will be follow-up with our ODOT partners with respect to these projects.

Daddy-Daughter Dance. Councilmember Spaulding said he attended the Daddy-Daughter Dance on Saturday, February 9, 2013. He said all three dances were sold out and encouraged the City Manager to consider adding a second day to the event because many were unable to attend this very successful event. He said this a very important family event that actually changes lives. He said these young girls will remember these special moments for the rest of their lives. God Bless Norman.

*

Congratulations to Clara Castleberry. Councilmember Castleberry said he wanted to congratulate his niece, Clara Castleberry, an eighth grader at Tulsa Edison, who is a member of the National Championship Pom Squad.

*

Commending City Clerk. Councilmember Castleberry congratulated Ms. Brenda Hall, City Clerk, for her recent certification as a Certified City Clerk. He said she had worked hard for it and those who worked with her every day are not the least bit surprised. He said she was a model City Clerk.

*

Commending City Staff. Councilmember Kovach said the City has excellent Staff in all the departments and are worth the money they are paid.

*

Griffin Dog Park. Councilmember Gallagher said the Griffin Park Dog Park is now open and has been expanded to almost twice its size. He said it is a much nicer, spacious park with park benches.

Sales Tax Report . The February Sales Tax Report has been received and levels are up 11.8% over last month. 4.2% in collected sales tax had been budgeted and 3.17% had been received.

Daddy-Daughter Dance. The Daddy-Daughter Dance started in 2000 with 250 participants. On February 9th, 3,666 daddy's and daughters attended the event making memories and they used the entire Grand Ballroom at Embassy Suites Hotel during the event.

Upcoming Comprehensive Transportation Plan Meetings. Last week was the beginning of the Comprehensive Transportation Plan citizens participation process. The next meetings will be held Monday, February 18th to discuss existing conditions and needs; Monday, February 25th to discuss improvement concepts; Thursday, April 25th to assess potential projects; and Thursday, May 23rd to discuss policies and programs. Interested citizens are urged to attend these meetings.

Legacy Trail Extension. The Oklahoma Department of Transportation had just given approval to start the bidding process for the southern link to the Legacy Trail Extension. This section will be from Duffy Street to Boyd Street and will include a four-foot sidewalk and some driveway approaches. There will be a ten-foot portion of Legacy Trail on Duffy Street from Jenkins Avenue to Asp Avenue. This extension will effectively provide the connection to the University. Going north, the Legacy Trail will eventually connect at Tecumseh Road and travel up 36th Avenue N.W. to Ruby Grant Park.
