THE SALVATION ARMY POLICY STATEMENT ON RELATIONSHIPS WITH OTHER GROUPS AND ORGANIZATIONS

The Salvation Army in the United States works cooperatively with many groups – governmental, social service, civic, religious, business, humanitarian, educational, health, character building, and other groups – in the pursuit of its mission to preach the Christian Gospel and meet human need.

Any agency, governmental or private, which enters into a contractual or cooperative relationship with The Salvation Army should be advised that:

1. The Salvation Army is an international religious and charitable movement, organized and operated on a quasi-military pattern, and is a branch of the Christian church.
2. All programs of The Salvation Army are administered by Salvation Army Officers, who are ministers of the Gospel.
3. The motivation of the organization is love of God and a practical concern for the needs of humanity.
4. The Salvation Army's provision of food, shelter, health services, counseling, and other physical, social, emotional, psychological and spiritual aid, is given on the basis of need, available resources and established program policies.

Organizations contracting and/or cooperating with The Salvation Army may be assured that because The Salvation Army is rooted in Christian compassion and is governed by Judeo-Christian ethics, The Salvation Army will strictly observe all provision of its contracts and agreements.
